P.C.

. The petitioner retired from Government service. On 17th January, 2006 he was given time to vacate the premises until 31st May, 2006. Even when the impugned order was passed by Principale Judge of City Civil Court the petitioner was informed that he can be given one or two months' further extension to vacate the premises. accept the extension of one or two months. Even thereafter now almost one month has elapsed. The petitioner is granted time to vacate until 31st July, 2006, subject to the filing of the usual undertaking before this Court within two weeks, failing which the respondents will be at liberty to take recourse to their rights under law.

. The petition stands disposed of.
